>Eddy Skipper McGee hated Edward Logan and Eddward Marion Jameson with every breath of his body. For years they were the closet of friends who pulled scams and tricks on the neighborhood children for quarters. They used to be like brothers and then things changed during their teen years.

Eddward or as he was called as a adolescent Double D manifested mutant abilities at age thirteen and learned to harness them. He could lift objects with his mind from bikes to a plane. He could read minds, erase memoires and with technological assistance find more powered humans.

Edd found Ascalon a ancient alien weapon that taps into the forces of the universe itself as the source of its power. Misuse of that power can destroy entire planets and the Omnitrix a device allowing him to transform into thousands of different aliens.

Eddy inherited a powerful belt allowing him to transform into a masked hero he called Kamen Rider from his late brother. For years they banded together against villainy alongside other powered and masked heroes even if they where only in their late teens. But hen one fool messed it all up.

A wannabe hero called Melonhead tried to take down the Kanker Sisters a trio of aliens obsessed with the Eds bent on destruction. His carelessness In the battle ended badly destroying half of the neighboring town of Lemon Brook. Masked heroes were harassed by law enforcement and civilians. In the end the government passed a law forcing heroes to register their identities with the government or be branded as criminals and be imprisoned.

Eddy protested the act and it seemed so did his friends but then after a battle with a band of criminals Ed knocked out Eddy and left him where the authorities could find him. Eddy was sentenced to ten years for disagreeing with the act and for keeping a 'dangerous' weapon.

Eddy suffered badly in Peach Creek Penitentiary. His cellmate had been a criminal he had locked up and for the past month Eddy has been his personal punching bag. He was feed the worst food and his own parents first and only visit they called him a criminal.

Eddy was on his bunk his face bruised and scratched up from a fight with his cellmate who was now in the infirmary. Eddy was bleeding from minor wounds on his chest and arms from the guards who roughed him up. Eddy's black hair was messy as it could be with white patches from stress.

" Those bastards left me to rot here." Tears welled up in Eddy's eyes and he slammed his fists into the wall again and again. " I saved them tons of times and they betray me!" Eddy stopped to rub his eyes only stopping too see a jaw dropping sight. His cell door was ripped off And the one responsible for it was holding the cell door like it was nothing and Eddy knew who it was at first sight.

Nazz Van Bartonschmeer. She used to be Eddy's girlfriend till his imprisonment. Starstruck Eddy couldn't react but Nazz did she tossed him his belt.

" Hurry my friends can only hold them off for a few minutes." Nazz ordered. She Nazz was clothed in a skintight black and white bodysuit that's black from the chest down and white from the chest up. It also has a white hood that has a red and cyan blue spider web pattern on the inside, and that same pattern is on the sleeves of the suit. She also wears a pair of white gloves. Her mask was clutched in her free one as a alarm began to sound and Eddy heard the foot steps of guards.

His belt was the... ..Driver.

>For Eddy's belt there's a poll on my profile with five choices for his Kamen Rider Driver. Fourze, Ghost, Drive, Decade and Kiva. Please leave your vote.

Please leave a review.

Stay frosty.

2. Chapter 2

Drive Driver with it and another device called the shift brace he transformed into Kamen Rider Drive. Using other devices called powerdul toy cars called Shift Cars Eddy unlocked multiple forms and weapons in his arensal.

It was bright silver with a red seat belt that wrapped itself around Eddy's wrist, in the middle was a circular screen with a red face in the the left side was a red switch and clipped to it was a holster of some kind holding what looked like toy cars. Nazz tossed him a small brace which Eddy put on immediately.

Nazz tossed him tossed him a red car which Eddy connected to the brace like a lever and pushed it forward. He yelled " Henshin!" **

it's a bunch of holographic tires appearing around the character, a brief flash and armor appears on Eddy with the tire basically ramming itself into his torso flying out of nowhere.

Once the transformation was complete, Eddy found himself wearing a black bodysuit with silver knee pads and silver stripes on the side of his stomach. His feet were red with two black stripes on the top of feet and a black spot on the front. On his forearms were red gauntlets with a silver band around his wrists. The weird brace on his left wrist had the small shift car securely placed. His torso was protected by a red chest armor that the black tire with a red stripe in the middle wrapped around his chest in a slanted angle from the top of his left shoulder, down to the right side of his waist. He also had red triangular shoulder pads that continued the red sports car motif. His head was covered in a red, white, and black helmet with large silver compound eyes that looked to be a mix between the eyes of a bug and headlights of a car. The middle of the helmet was mostly white but with a black stripe in the middle. on the top of the head was what appeared to be a small spoiler that was usually on sports cars. Under the compound eyes was a battle mask that covered his mouth that looked like something from a Transformers character.

On the Drive Driver a D, T and a S flashed on the small screen before the voice of Krim Steinbelt or Mr Belt as Eddy nicknamed him said " Drive Type Speed. "

_" _Let's go for a ride!" Eddy said smiling under his mask.

But his joy was cut shift by the arrival of the guards featuring Eddy's main tormentor Kevin Stone. Kevin hated Eddy more than anything. When Eddy was starting out as Kamen Rider Drive Kevin was the most popular kid in school and Nazz's boyfriend but that all changed when a Lee Kanker a Super Skrull attacked their school. Kevin pushed Nazz into Lee's path to save his 'precious' bike.

Luckily Eddy arrived just in time to save her. After that nobody would look in Kevin's direction, he was kicked off the football team and the teachers were stricter than ever. And Nazz broke up with him in front of their class.

But when Kevin ended up aguard in the prison he loved every second of it. He tormented Eddy every chance he got. Kevin was tall for a eighteen year old and was muscular from his time on the football team. He had close cropped ginger hair and wore a lime green shirt under his uniform.

" Drop your weapon Dorky. " Kevin ordered aiming a blaster in Nazz's direction. " Or Spider-chick gets it. Too bad she's a freak now maybe me and her could've-" Before Kevin could continue his rant Eddy lifted the Shift Speed Car three times. Then he made the Type Speed Tire rotate rapidly as he drifts towards Kevin and trips him up into the air. Afterwards, he unleashes a barrage of rapid punches onto the falling target, making an image of a speedometer appear from the resulting series of punches.

It sent Kevin flying away letting Nazz incapacitate the other guards. She shot a web line at one and swung it sending him crashing into another and jumped on another striking him with her fists before kicking him in the stomach and slamming her elbow into his throat.

Eddy was dumbstruck. He never saw Nazz do a violent thing in his entire life before he could react Me Belt put his two cents in." Stop gawking at her. Benjamin is waiting for us outside with transportation."

Eddy blushed before he and Nazz ran out the prison as fast as they could.

>As this was unfolding Eddward was in his private study. Following Eddy's incarceration both he and Edd were given government funding for tracking down and 'rehabilitating' unregistered heroes. In the eyes of the people Double D was a saint but in reality he was more like the devil.

Eddwardused to be skinny for his age but now he was more well built. His dark brown hair was covered one eye, his skin was paler than it used to be and he was clad in a dark blue suit.

The room was filled with books on psychology, science, animals and plants, scientific equipment and posters but he was looking at a particular object in the room.

A glass vial on his desk. Inside was a living black goo moving around trying to escape. Eddward couldn't explain what it was but he loved it. He was given a boost to his powers, increased strength and more. He could see his actual future with it. It was a secret he kept to himself a secret he almost killed to keep.

" Soon friend. Very soon." Eddward said revealing yellowed sharpened teeth with a sinister smile.
